Home Adaptations for Seniors Independence (HASI)

KNOW THE FACTS

The HASI Program:

- Provides financial assistance to low-income households to complete modifications required to accommodate the needs of a senior (age 65+) household member with a disability

HASI Offers:

- Maximum forgivable loan of $3,500

Eligibility:

- To meet eligibility criteria, you must:
 - have a gross annual household income below the Household Income Limits (HILs)
 - occupy the property as your principal residence for more than six months of the year
 - maintain legal ownership of the property
- Rental accommodation may be eligible if the landlord consents to the modifications

Eligible Modifications:

- Housing-related modifications that address the disability needs of a senior member of the household
- A doctor's certificate is required to confirm the nature of the disability and the modifications necessary to accommodate it
- Repairs completed prior to receiving written approval from Saskatchewan Housing Corporation do not qualify
